

Alba Outdoor Resin Bench Seat

Product Images

Description

The Alba Bench is a sleek and durable seating solution crafted from UV-protected polypropylene, ensuring long-lasting color retention and resistance to outdoor elements. Designed with smooth, clean lines, this bench effortlessly combines functionality with style.

With a width of 115 cm, depth of 74 cm, and height of 80 cm, the Alba Bench provides ample seating space while maintaining a lightweight and practical design. Suitable for both indoor and outdoor use, it's perfect for cafes, restaurants, or residential spaces looking for modern simplicity. Available in fresh white, it seamlessly complements various decor styles while offering reliable comfort and durability.

A relax chair, armchair, bar stool, side chair, and coffee tables are available as part of the Alba range.
